VISITING INFORMATION

Visiting hours are 9 a.m. – 9 p.m. daily, for those 12 years and older, but are subject to change under some circumstances and may vary in specialty areas. Children will be allowed to visit patients 5 – 7 p.m. and during special circumstances such as births and end-of-life care. In addition to a care giver, two visitors will be allowed in patients room at a time. For the protection of our patients, access to the hospital is limited at night. All entrances are secured from 9 p.m. – 5:30 a.m. If visitation is required during this time, please enter the hospital by way of the Emergency Center.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

- We are a smoke-free campus. Visitors must comply with this policy.
- Visitors must dress appropriately and must wear shirts and shoes
- Visits should be short and visitors should maintain a quiet environment.
- To protect our patients and staff, persons with infectious diseases, such as colds, flu, and fever, should NOT visit
- Visitors may be asked to leave the room during baths, tests, or treatments or when the doctor or nurse needs to see the patient.

Mattie H. Marshall Walking & Cross Country Trail

The Mattie H. Marshall Trail is located on the Phoebe Sumter campus. The trail includes a quarter-mile paved loop and a one-mile unpaved loop through a wooded area on the west side of the campus. The trail's purpose is to promote a healthy lifestyle by providing a natural community walking path. The trail includes five exercise/stretch stations and four benches, as well as a sculpture created by artist Jeff Williams.

Phoebe Sumter Interfaith Chapel

The chapel is located on the first floor across from the main information desk.

The chapel is available to patients and families 24 hours a day for prayer and meditation.
